Meteorologists Tee Off

To Raise Money for New Weather Museum

April 11, 2006...The 11th annual Weatherman's Classic Golf Tournament "swings" into full gear on Thursday, April 20. Money raised from the annual competition helps fund the John C. Freeman Weather Museum, which opens to the public on April 22 at 5104 Caroline in the Houston Museum District. Meteorologists from the local stations will compete, including KHOU-TV's Dr. Neil Frank, Fox 26's Cecilia Sinclair, KPRC-TV's Anthony Yanez, KHWB-TV's Keith Monahan as well as The Weather Channel's Marshall Seese, Paul Goodloe and Keith Westerlage.

The golf tournament is open to the public. For more information, please call (713) 529-3076.

The John C. Freeman Weather Museum will provide a facility for people of all ages to learn about the weather, its history and public safety. Historical equipment and weather data will be on exhibit along with hands-on displays for people of all ages to come and learn about weather safety and just how weather works.

The John C. Freeman Weather Museum at the Weather Research Center is located at 5104 Caroline near the Children's Museum of Houston. Admission is $5 for adults, $2 for students and seniors and free for children under age 3. The Museum will be open Tuesday - Sunday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. For more information, please call (713) 529-3076.
